

COVID-19 Learning Loss

Study the effects of COVID-19 on K-12 learning loss and best practices that exist to address learning loss. Monitor the implementation of state and local plans to address students' achievement gaps. Make recommendations for supporting the state and local efforts to increase academic development.

Economically disadvantaged students experienced greater learning loss in both reading and math

^{1.} Includes STAAR 3-8 Reading, English I and English II EOC Assessments; 2.7M tested students in 2019 with 2M eco. dis. and 2.4M in 2021 with 1.7M eco. dis. 2. Includes STAAR 3-8 Mathematics, Algebra I EOC Assessment; 3.3M tested students in 2019 with 1.7M eco. dis. and 2.9M in 2021 with 1.4M eco. dis. Note: Results for grades 3-5 combine assessments given in Spanish and English. Participation in STAAR math and reading assessments in 2021 was 86%. Spring 2021 STAAR results are for learning and recovery planning only – no SSI grade promotion requirements or ratings for districts or campuses. There is no 2020 STAAR data because of cancellation of STAAR in spring 2020. | Source: Spring 2019 and Spring 2021 STAAR Data

Mathematics Achievement is Down Significantly

In 2019, for students in tested grades (ie, 3-9), there were 571,581 students who performed below Approaches, at the Does Not Meet Grade Level threshold in mathematics.

In 2021, that number is 865,252.

Roughly 300,000 more students are noticeably below grade level in math for the 2021-22 school year in grades 4-10.

Considerations

Strategic Planning

performance
performance

learning acceleration strategies

- Learning recovery will take several years.
- Successfully increasing the rate of student learning ie, learning acceleration – requires intensive, coordinated planning, and disciplined consistent execution.
- School system leaders benefit from capacity support at the district-level to help accomplish this intensive, coordinated planning – support that is disproportionately beneficial for small, rural LEAs.
